

DeCS– Health Sciences Descriptors: license agreement and conditions of use

Read carefully: Upon downloading and using the DeCS vocabulary, you ("User") expressly agree with the conditions defined below

1. About DeCS

- 1.1 The structured and trilingual DeCS vocabulary - Health Sciences Descriptors was created by the Latin American and Caribbean Center on Health Sciences Information - BIREME, a specialized center of the Pan American Health Organization, the regional office for the Americas of the World Health Organization, hereinafter "BIREME/PAHO/WHO", from the MeSH - Medical Subject Headings of the U.S. National Library of Medicine, with the objective of permitting the use of a controlled terminology both in the indexing and in the search by subject for technical and scientific literature in the LILACS, MEDLINE and other databases available in the Virtual Health Library ("VHL"), providing a consistent environment of recovery of information in health sciences in the region, regardless of the language.
- 1.2 DeCS integrates the LILACS methodology and is an integrating component of the VHL, is annually updated, and the utilization of the most recent version is promoted.

2. Terms and conditions of use

- 2.1 The user recognizes all the intellectual property rights of BIREME/PAHO/WHO, especially the authorship, with regard to DeCS, in the Portuguese, Spanish, and English languages.
- 2.2 The content of DeCS obtained from the MeSH-Medical Subject Headings is the property of the U.S. National Library of Medicine, that is recognized by BIREME/PAHO/WHO and by the user as creator, maintainer and supplier of the aforementioned content.

- 2.3 The user is permitted to use DeCS, in all the forms and media provided by BIREME/PAHO/WHO, including when part of other programs (software), as well as to make copies for personal or corporate use, forbidden the marketing and the modification of its content. In case of corporate use, the user must clearly identify BIREME/PAHO/WHO as the owner of the copyright, as well as the creator, maintainer, and supplier of the data.
- 2.4 The DeCS is brought up to date annually and the user must identify the version being used (example: DeCS 2008 version), as well as is requested to always obtain and use the most up-to-date version of the vocabulary.
- 2.5 BIREME/PAHO/WHO does not assume any responsibility for the use or application of the DeCS vocabulary, in whole or in part, by the user, who will be the sole responsible for any harm caused to a third party.
- 2.6 The acquisition of DeCS, in whatever media existing or which may be created, does not transfer, attribute or confer the user any intellectual property right, on the whole or any of the parts constituting the DeCS vocabulary.
- 2.7 The breach of any of the conditions of use here defined will subject the user to the sanctions foreseen in legislation of intellectual property (copyright) in effect.
3. Validity, cost, and guarantee.

3. Validity, cost, and guarantee.

- 3.1 The license agreement of use of the DeCS version has limited validity and will last until 9 (nine) months after the launch of the new version by BIREME/PAHO/WHO.
- 3.2 This license agreement grants free use.

- 3.3 BIREME/PAHO/WHO does not confer - and the user will not have the right to - any service of technical assistance, warranty or maintenance of DeCS, and the eventual offer of those services is mere liberality of BIREME/PAHO/WHO.
- 3.4 It is established that BIREME/PAHO/WHO does not have any responsibility for damages caused in electronic equipments due to the installation or use of computer programs (software) that contain DeCS.